TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 11/12 OCTOBER 2025

Fr. Tom writes...

"There is an obstacle that often prevents us from recognizing Christ's presence in our daily lives: the assumption that joy must be free from suffering. The disciples of Emmaus walk sadly because they hoped for a different ending, for a Messiah who did not know the cross. Although they have heard that the tomb is empty, they cannot smile. But Jesus walks alongside them and patiently helps them understand that pain is not the denial of the promise, but the way through which God has manifested the measure of his love."

This powerful quote can be found in the General Audience that was given last Wednesday by Pope Leo in St Peter's Square. Anyone visiting Rome can apply for a ticket to attend a General Audience, held most Wednesdays, and a summary is always given at the end in English and other major languages, with a full text in English available online soon afterwards. Church doctrine, from era-defining Council documents to short General Audience talks, is one of the great untapped treasures of the Catholic Church which, thanks to the Internet (such a destructive influence in many ways, but still an incredible resource if used with prudence) has never been more accessible.

Did you know, for instance, that there was a significant Vatican document on Artificial Intelligence published in January called Antiqua et nova? I was asked to speak about it to the Royal Navy's AI team in Portsmouth this year, so thoughtful is it in applying ancient principles to this brand-new development in human ingenuity. The Church has always valued good reasoning (philosophy) as well as theology, and – armed with both – can think very clearly about the issues of our day. If you want to know why the Church holds the positions it does on subjects like Assisted Suicide, go beneath the headlines and arguments, and read the original documents where it lays out its position. Many documents are addressed to 'people of goodwill'; that is, anyone willing to listen to what the Church has to say.

All Papal (sometimes known as 'Magisterial') documents are free to read and, together with details on how to book tickets for a General Audience for those fortunate enough to go to Rome, can be found on the Vatican's website, Vatican.va. There are also some really interesting Catholic podcasts coming out of America at the moment. I discovered The Just One Small Thing Podcast on a car journey recently after dealing with a family member diagnosed with Alzheimer's. It had a really helpful episode on care for the elderly. And Pope Francis's final encyclical, Diligit Nos (He Loved Us), is a superb, life-giving answer to the question: what does it mean when we say God loves us? It's not short, but, as with many of the longer Vatican documents, you can buy a book version in English from the Catholic Truth Society (ctsbooks.org) if you don't want to read online.

NOTICES & FUTURE EVENTS ...

Alpha 2025-26

Alpha is wonderful for anyone who has questions, is seeking to grow in their faith or wants to experience a greater sense of belong in our communities.

The Alpha course sessions started last week and will take place for 10 weeks. Each evening begins with a delicious hot meal and opportunities for developing new friendships. This is followed by an engaging presentation on the Christian faith and the opportunity, in small groups, to share your thoughts and raise questions in a supportive and non-judgemental environment. If you haven't done alpha before and feel this could be a good opportunity for you, please email alpha@waterlooville-catholic.org.uk to register and find out more.

We are beginning the journey for those that would like to consider receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation next Summer with the exciting, new youth alpha series. There will be an opportunity to enrol in early January for further faith-based interactive sessions to prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

We are delighted that Bishop Philip will be Confirming our young people with the Holy Spirit at the Sacred Heart Church, Waterlooville, on Tuesday 2nd June at 7pm.

If you would like to receive more information about this opportunity, please e mail:

First Holy Communion Programme 2026

Full details of the programme will be emailed out to parents in the autumn. There will be a Registration session on Sunday 18 January after the morning Mass and sessions will continue on after this date. Closing date for names: Friday 31 November 2025.

Please pray for those who need our prayers...

We pray for those who are ill in mind and body. May they find comfort and hope in the tender love of Jesus. We also pray for those who care for them, that they may be blessed with the gifts of gentleness and patience.

Vocations

Our Vocations Promotion team invites you to join them for Seeker Saturdays, beginning Saturday 18th October, 11am-3pm, at Sacred Heart Church, Fareham. PO16 ONQ

Our monthly group will resume on Saturday 18th October. For your diary: the other Seeker Saturday dates for this academic year are: 15th November, 6th December, 17th January, 28th February, 21st March, 25th April, 16th May and 13th June.

Pope Leo XIV recently called for the creation of communities where young people can feel accepted, listened to, and encouraged in their vocational discernment. Our regular gathering for Seeker Saturday gather for exactly that purpose. If you are discerning if the Lord is calling you to the priesthood, diaconate or religious life, then spending time with like-minded people can be really beneficial to any vocational journey. Our time together includes prayer, discussion, Mass, Adoration and lunch too.

Pope Francis once reflected on the significance of discernment, "Discernment is demanding and requires listening to the Lord, to oneself, and to others. It is a process that calls for 'prayer, reflection, patient expectation, and, ultimately, courage and sacrifice'." The Pope also highlighted the joy that comes from making good decisions, stressing that "making a good decision, a right decision, brings us much joy."

He urged that we especially help young people understand that "being free means risking to embark on a particular path, with wisdom and prudence of course, but also with boldness and a spirit of renunciation, in order to grow and advance in self-giving, and thus to find happiness in loving others in accordance with God's plan."

To find out more about this regular event or to enquiry about attending (as booking is required) please email vocations@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk

Parking Incident last Weekend

The parish office is looking into the situation with the council over parking tickets issued to parishioners at the 10.30am Mass last Sunday.

We do advise everyone to park in our car park when coming along to Masses or events at Sacred Heart. Do not park in our 'Drop off zone' or on any double yellow lines in London Road.

Amare Memoriae

We pray for the rest and peace of the souls of Michael Jacob and Jacqui Fregredo who have died recently. Please remember in your prayers their families and friends at this very difficult time. John's funeral will be at Sacred Heart on Monday 27 October @ 12noon. Details of Jacqui's Funeral will be announced when confirmed.

A close friend of Jacqui's, parishioner Sheila Morgan, has been kind enough share this with us:

"Jacqui was born in France in the 1920's and lived there throughout the Second World War. She had some interesting stories to tell about the German occupation. Many years ago, she became housebound but prior to that, was a parishioner of St. Edmond's but always received Holy Communion on a Sunday. Jacqui was taken into hospital on Tuesday October 7th but sadly died the following morning - She leaves 2 sons who cared for her over many years."

This Year's Toy Sale – Saturday 1 November from 2-4pm

Our Annual Toy Sale is to support those who might be really struggling in our local area, offering good quality new and pre-loved toys to families, especially with Christmas just round the corner.

If anyone has any toys they'd like to donate, please bring them into church on the last two weekends of October.

- As many of you are aware, parishioner Anthony Lewis made an appeal for toys at Mass last weekend. Please see below, a note from Anthony and Cathryn incorporating this into the Annual Toy Sale, The Memory Challenge 2025, in loving memory of their daughters, Twmp and Edith...

Our Toy Sale is now just three weeks away and the response so far has been phenomenal! We are so grateful for all the pre-loved toy donations we've received. To make sure every child is included, we are now focusing on Amazon Wishlist donations to cover age groups that are often missed.

Please scan this QR code and you'll find toys for all ages, boys and girls, focusing on what is needed most right now.

The Toy Drive is in collaboration with Sacred Heart Church Toy Sale. If you or anyone you know can donate via our Wishlist or contribute monetarily to help us reach our goal, it would make a huge difference.

Did you know that 1 in 6 children in the UK may not receive a Christmas gift due to financial hardship. Nearly half of parents feel they can't provide the presents their children hope for.

Your support can change that!

Let's make this Christmas magical for every child!

Second Collection next weekend – Foreign Missions

World Mission Sunday is next weekend. The whole of the Church unites in prayer to support Catholic communities across the world. There will be a second collection after all Masses.

On behalf of Justice & Peace, Maureen Graham writes...

ASSISTED SUICIDE BILL

There has been significant opposition to the Leadbeater Bill and that is thanks to you parishioners who wrote emails and letters to the House of Lords.

Please keep up with writing letters and more importantly your prayers.

ABORTION UP TO BIRTH - LIFE UK

An update about the major battle we are about to face against the abortion lobby over the Antoniazzi Abortion to Birth Amendment with the Second Reading happening in the House of Lords in the next few weeks.

If the Amendment becomes law, it would no longer be illegal for women to perform their own abortions for any reason - even for sex selection, solely because the baby was a girl and at any moment right up to birth.

I plead with you again my fellow parishioners to email or write to the Lords and Baronesses in the Lords opposing this Amendment to the Abortion Bill.

May God bless you for being the voice of the voiceless.

Mass for the Sick – This Saturday 11 October @ 12noon

St Edmund, Horndean, would like to extend a warm welcome to everyone in Jesus Prince of Peace Parish for a special Mass with the Sacrament of the Sick.

Our Sacred Heart Shopkeeper Mary Mitchell writes...

The Rosary Month in 2025 is October 1st to October 31st. It commemorates the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7th. Pope Leo XIV has called for all Catholics to pray the rosary daily during this month for peace in the world. You can participate by praying the rosary daily, reflecting on the Mysteries of the Rosary, and joining in a rosary prayer group held at The Sacred Heart Church on Tuesday evenings from 6.45pm.

If you do not have a rosary, I have a wonderful and varied selection for sale in the Sacred Heart Church shop. They are all very reasonably priced, and I am sure you will find one that takes your eye!

Sadly, due to thefts of cash at the church we are no longer able to accept cash, unless I or other members of the office staff are present. Hopefully, that should not be a problem for the majority of parishioners as we have a card machine available next to the Sacristy door in the narthex.

As always, I am looking forward to seeing you and catching up with your news. Happy days to you all, Mary.

Further to Mary's announcement of 'Card Only' for the shop, we have also moved the place for your donations to the parish. (please do not use the box currently on the Sacristy wall). For anyone wishing to donate to Sacred Heart, please place your cash/cheque in the wooden box marked 'Parish Donations' on the wall to the left as you go into church.

News from St Peter's Catholic Primary School

Headteacher, Richard Cunningham writes...

This week Fr James and I attended a meeting organised by the Catholic Academies and Schools Office (CASO) of the Diocese of Portsmouth. Headteachers and Clergy from all across the Diocese came together to discuss how homes, schools and parishes can work in closer union to share the faith and promote the spiritual formation not just of our children and young people, but whole families as well. There were presentations on best practice from schools and parishes, as well as a chance to discuss initiatives with schools and parish priests both in our pastoral area and the greater Portsmouth area. There was an abundance of ideas, so there is a lot to digest from the day, but over the coming months and years we hope to be able to strengthen still further the links between our schools and parishes in and around Waterlooville.
