THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

8/9 NOVEMBER 2025

Fr. Tom writes...

I once heard the story of an American woman who accompanied her elderly father on a trip to a Pacific island where he had seen action in the campaign against the Japanese in World War II. In military terms, it had been a disaster. Soon after they had been dropped by submarine onto this particular island, it became obvious that the Japanese had not only spotted them, but were ready for them.

For years, her father had never told his daughter what happened, but back on the beach he broke down and told her why he had wanted to come all this way to pay his respects. Realising they were about to be overrun, his company commander and sergeant had ordered everyone back into the water, where the Navy was still submerged, while the two of them proceeded to attack the Japanese post alone. Both were killed, but gave the others time to escape.

Acts of knowing self-sacrifice like that are unspeakably moving even for those of us who were not involved. Jesus once said that there was no greater love than that of a man who would lay down his life for his friends. In time, of course, he would do exactly that, and he would do so not just for those around him on Good Friday, but for you and me. As little as we can comprehend the scale or significance of it, he saved us that day too.

As the nation commemorates Remembrance Sunday and Remembrance Day, we think especially of those (many of them volunteers and conscripts) of the Commonwealth who have died for our sake. May the Lord give us some of their spirit of courage and generosity in our Christian lives.

Remembrance Sunday

Poppies are available at both churches – you may have to ask someone if you can't see them at Sacred Heart, sorry for this inconvenience but we are being super careful with donation boxes being left out now. All donations to the Royal British Legion.

Poppies are worn as a show of support for the Armed Forces community. The poppy is a well-known and well-established symbol, one that carries a wealth of history and meaning with it. Wearing a poppy is still a very personal choice, reflecting individual experiences and personal memories. It is never compulsory but is greatly appreciated by those who it is intended to support. www.britishlegion.org.uk

Fr. Daniel Agber writes...

On Saturday 15 November @ 11am I will be offering a Thanksgiving Mass at Christ the King Catholic Church, Reading to mark my 60th Birthday, 34th Priestly Ordination Anniversary, and the Launch of my book:

Legacy of Grace: A 60-Year Journey of Faith, Resilience and Compassion.

This day is not only a time to give thanks for the gift of life and priesthood, but also to extend that grace to others through the Torjir-Agber Foundation (TAF) — founded in memory of my late parents, to give education, hope, and dignity to the less privileged. Sponsor a child. Transform a life.

COP30

Philip Hayllar, Justice & Peace writes... We quote Pope Leo XIV – God will ask if we have cultivated and cared for the world that he created for the benefit of all and for future generations, and if we have taken care of our brothers and sisters – what will be our answer, my dear friends?

The Pope called for increased pressure on politicians, adding that citizens across the world need to take an active role in political decisions, saying “only then will it be possible to mitigate the damage done to the environment”.

The 30th Conference of the Parties (COP30) will be held in Brazil from November 6 to 21, 2025. This conference is significant as it will gather world leaders, scientists, and civil society to discuss urgent actions needed to combat climate change. The conference will emphasize efforts to limit global temperature increases to 1.5C, the presentation of new national action plans (NDC's) and the progress on financial commitments made at previous conferences. Developing countries are receiving less than 10 per cent of the money they need to adapt to a world increasingly vulnerable to extreme weather – putting lives, livelihoods and entire economies at risk.

What can we do?

1. Pray for a successful outcome
2. Sign the petition to the Energy Secretary which can be found on the CAFOD website
3. Join the Global Day of Action – we're taking to the streets for globally coordinated mobilisations on Saturday 15 November. Our local event will take place from 12 till 2 in Commercial Road Portsmouth by the fountain. While world leaders gather for the UN's climate summit, our call will echo through streets on every corner of the earth: this world is ours”!

There will be a Registration session on Sunday 18 January after the morning Mass and sessions will continue on after this date. Closing date for names: Friday 31 November 2025.

Admittance to Hospital?

When a Catholic is admitted to hospital, the family should ensure that the Catholic Chaplaincy is contacted so that appropriate support can be given. It is suggested that the patient have a note to give to hospital staff on admission, notifying staff that they are Catholic and would appreciate the Catholic Chaplaincy service. This could be followed up by a telephone call from the family to the ward to ensure the request is actioned. When a person is due to go into hospital, please also let your parish priest know so that he can administer the Sacrament of the Sick where appropriate.

Parking at Sacred Heart

We do advise everyone to park in our car park when coming along to Masses or events at Sacred Heart. Do not park in our 'Drop off zone' or on any double yellow lines in London Road, as you could be ticketed.

News from St Peter's Catholic Primary School

Richard Cunningham, Headteacher writes... Welcoming November with Faith and Reflection.

At St Peter's Catholic Primary School, this month started with a whole school Celebration of the Word on the solemnity of All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day — two important occasions in the Church's calendar that remind us of the communion of saints and the hope we hold in eternal life. Our pupils learnt about St Carlo Acutis, drawing inspiration from his courage, compassion, and unwavering faith. The life story of St Carlo Acutis helps us reflect on how we, too, can live out our values in everyday life — showing kindness, seeking justice, and walking humbly with God. As we journey through this month together, we hold in prayer all those who have gone before us, and we give thanks for the light of Christ that guides us through every season.

Jesus, Prince of Peace Christmas Fair

Saturday 6 December at St. Joseph's Church, Havant. As you may be aware we are working together to organise a social event to bring our whole parish together this Christmas.

We need your help to make this a success, so please give as generously as you can to our weekly appeals as we prepare for the event.

Each week will also be collecting anything you can think of for the tombola and children's lucky dip, the more prizes we can collect, the more chance there is for everybody to win something.

All parents, please be advised that we are hoping to have a visit from St Nicholas, so if you would like to enable your child to visit him for a small gift, please send us a note in the envelopes provided after Mass, so that we know how many to expect, and what funds might be available to help him fill his sack with gifts.

This weekend: Produce and Preserves Jars of Jam and Chutney that you made from this year's harvest can make excellent small gifts, please share what you can.

On the weekend of 14/15 November: Reminder to bring Books Bottles and Craft Re-gifts and Produce.

On 22/23 November, our final appeal is for home-made cakes. We don't want you to bring them to Mass (I have seen altar servers with a plate of cake, and it doesn't last long). Plan your bake and prepare to deliver to us at St Joseph's Hall on Friday 5 December.

You have two weeks to create your showstopper!

We will be setting up the day before the Fair, so please bring your contributions to St Josephs from 11am-3pm, on Friday, and bring yourselves and your families on Saturday to enjoy the event!
