Message from Fr Rob

As we gather to celebrate the Nativity of Our Lord, I always find myself reflecting on the year. This sacred season reminds us that "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us," and I see the light of that Incarnation reflected daily in your faith, your service, and your devotion in our parish. Things have changed and grown so much in the last two years.

I want to extend my deepest thanks for your support and encouragement. There is much more to do. As we stand in the light of Christ looking towards the new year. I am grateful for those who have volunteered their time to assist our parish mission. For those who have supported our endeavours with the quiet power of your prayers, you make the Gospel visible in our community. You are the living stones of this church, and it is a humbling privilege to serve as your Parish Priest.

May the peace of the Christ rest upon your homes and your hearts this Christmas. I pray that the joy of the shepherds and the adoration of the Magi find a permanent dwelling place in your lives throughout the coming year.

May Almighty God Bless you all.

Wishing you a blessed and Holy Christmas.

Lots of Love
Fr Rob.

St. Stephen's Day, Mass for Alter Servers

December 26th commemorates the Feast of Saint Stephen, the first Christian martyr—often referred to as the protomartyr. Saint Stephen was one of the earliest deacons of the Christian Church, chosen for his faith, wisdom, and commitment to serving the poor. Around AD 34, he was stoned to death for boldly proclaiming his belief in Christ, becoming the first person to die for the Christian faith.

In the United Kingdom and much of the Commonwealth, December 26th is also known as Boxing Day, a name traditionally associated with acts of charity. Historically, alms boxes placed in churches were opened on this day, and gifts or leftover food from Christmas were distributed to the poor and to servants. This strong emphasis on generosity and service closely reflects Saint Stephen's own charitable work and legacy as a deacon.

Saint Stephen is recognized as the patron saint of deacons, bricklayers, stonemasons, coffin makers, horses, and even headaches, sometimes humorously invoked for relief from hangovers. His feast day serves as a reminder of the call to selfless service, compassion for those in need, and unwavering faith, making December 26th a day that blends solemn remembrance with traditions of generosity and goodwill following the celebration of Christmas.

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos. in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.
