The Marriage Feast of Cana

In the joyful setting of a wedding feast, Jesus performs his first miracle at the gentle prompting of his mother, Mary. She notices the couple's embarrassment when the wine runs short and simply brings the need to her Son. Even though Jesus mentions that his hour has not yet come, Mary's quiet confidence shines through in her instruction to the servants: 'Do whatever he tells you.'

This moment reveals so much about God's generosity. Jesus doesn't provide just enough wine—he transforms ordinary water into an abundance of the finest wine, far more than needed. It's a beautiful sign that when we turn to him in faith and obedience, he elevates our everyday lives, turning potential shortages into overflowing blessings.

For families, this Gospel invites us to see Jesus as a guest in our own homes, especially in our relationships and celebrations. In marriage and family life, there are times when joy seems to run low—perhaps through fatigue, misunderstandings, or challenges. Like Mary, we can bring these quietly to Jesus in prayer, trusting him to transform them. And like the servants, simple obedience opens the door to his miraculous grace.

'The Suscipe'

A Prayer by St Ignatius Loyola

Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will,
all I have and call my own.
You have given all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours; do with it what you will.
Give me only your love and your grace,
that is enough for me. Amen

and more of a love affair
