Baptism of the Lord (Year A, Cycle 2)

11th January 2026

Reflection from Fr Elijah: 'You are my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on you'

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord concludes the Christmas season and marks a turning point in Jesus' life, as he moves from the hidden years in Nazareth into his public ministry. The liturgy shifts focus from the infant Jesus to the adult Messiah beginning his mission. Jesus' baptism by John the Baptist in the Jordan is his first public act and the moment when God reveals him as his beloved Son, as the Holy Spirit descends and the Father's voice is heard. This event inaugurates a journey that will lead from Galilee to Jerusalem and ultimately to Calvary.

Jesus' baptism serves as a prologue to his mission, revealing both his obedience to the Father's will and the nature of his messiahship. Contrary to popular expectations of a political or military liberator, Jesus chooses the path of the suffering servant. Drawing on the prophecy of Isaiah, his mission is characterized by gentleness, compassion, and steadfast commitment to justice. He identifies with the poor and oppressed, brings healing and liberation, and establishes justice without violence or coercion.

Reflecting on Jesus' baptism also invites us, his disciples, to reflect on ours. Through baptism, we become children of God, members of Christ's Body, temples of the Holy Spirit, and participants in Christ's priesthood. Baptism affirms personal dignity and calls believers to recognize God's presence in others through love, service, and humility. It also carries a missionary dimension, committing us to continue Jesus' work of justice, compassion, and love.

The feast is therefore a fitting time to recall and renew our baptismal promises. The symbols of baptism – the anointing with chrism and the baptismal candle – reminds us of our consecration and the light of faith entrusted to us. We are called to reject evil, live faithfully, and witness to the Gospel through lives marked by love, mercy, forgiveness, and service.

Within our Parish

Service of Christian on Unity Sunday: Christians all over the world have been celebrating the birth of Christ in many different ways, but one thing that is certain and which unites us all, is our belief in God and his son Jesus. To express this unity, you are invited to join Churches Together in Hedge End, West End & Botley at 3pm on Sunday 18th January at Anchor Community Church, West End for a service to launch the start of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. All are welcome.

Help with Teas and Coffees: At CKSC we are needing more volunteers to help with the First Sunday of the Month Teas and Coffees. Any and all help is appreciated. If you're able to volunteer in this ministry, please speak with Joan Campbell, or contact the parish office. Many thanks.
