3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A, Cycle 2)

25th January 2026

Reflection from Fr Elijah: Called to be the Light of Christ

On this Third Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Church invites us to listen with special attentiveness, because today we also celebrate Word of God Sunday. It is fitting, then, that our readings revolve around a powerful image: light. Isaiah proclaims that the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. In the Gospel, that prophecy is fulfilled as Jesus begins his ministry in Galilee, announcing, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

The light that dawns is not an abstract idea. It is a person. Christ himself is the living Word of God, spoken into our darkness to guide our steps, heal our divisions, and call us into communion. Wherever Jesus goes, light follows, fishermen find new purpose, the sick are healed, and ordinary lives are drawn into God’s extraordinary plan.

Yet, Saint Paul, in his First Letter to the Corinthians, reminds us that light can be resisted. He speaks plainly about divisions within the Christian community – factions, rivalries, loyalties that place personalities above Christ. His appeal is urgent: “that there be no divisions among you.” This was a problem of the first century and even today.

Christian unity is not uniformity, nor is it something we manufacture by our own efforts. Unity flows from listening together to the same Word, allowing it to shape our hearts. When Scripture becomes a weapon, division grows. When it becomes a shared wellspring of grace, communion deepens.

Today, let us ask for the grace to step out of our nets – our certainties, our camps, our divisions – and walk together behind the one Lord who is not divided. May the Word of God be a lamp for our feet, a light for our path, and a bond of unity for all who call upon the name of Jesus.

This Sunday we welcome Fr Kevin who will be celebrating all Sunday Masses for us.
