Sunday Reflection

THEME: THERE IS THE LAMB THAT TAKES AWAY THE SINS OF THE WORLD

There is a difference in the way the sin offering was offered in the O.T. and in the N.T. In the O.T., the celebration of the sacrament of reconciliation for the Jews was done with the use of a lamb. The priest will lay his hands on the lamb and confess the people's sins. Then the lamb would be taken to the gate of the town and driven out of the town to the desert, where it would eventually die with the sins of the people. Not just this, but sin sacrifices were made too, where lambs were slaughtered and offered to God for the sins of the people. But these forms of reconciliation with God were incomplete and inadequate. The complete sacrifice to take away the sins of the world was in Christ. John the Baptist points out Jesus in today's gospel, saying: "Look, there is the Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world" (Jn 1:29). I would like us to reflect on the significance of these words for us as Christians.

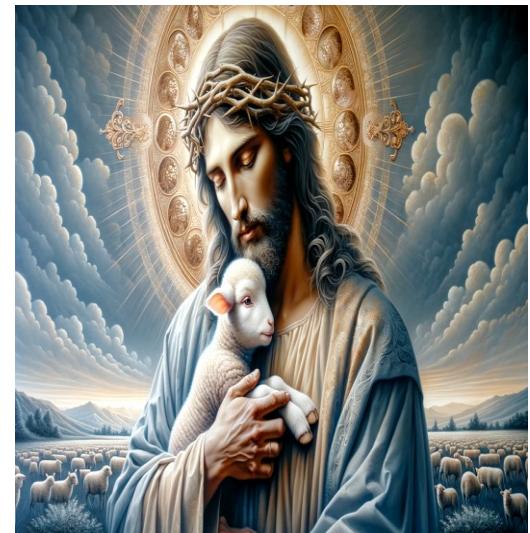

Referring to Jesus as the Lamb of God was absolutely correct in the language of the Jews, where the word lamb could also mean servant. Therefore, Jesus is the servant of God spoken of by Isaiah (Is 53:1-12), who was to sacrifice himself for his brothers and sisters. He is also the true lamb that replaces the paschal lamb (Mk 14:12). Therefore, for us to have been washed clean of our sins, Jesus had to shed his blood for us to make us one with God again; thereby abolishing any other human, animal or plant sacrifices needed to take away our sins. No other sacrifice is needed to wash us clean, except two things: the Mass, where we come to re-enact in a bloodless manner what took place at Calvary on Good Friday, and the sacrament of Reconciliation.

We all need to be lambs/servants to one another, which can cover the sins of others. Who is the Lamb among us who is willing to do this in the present situation of my country, Cameroon? This country needs lambs or servants who can sacrifice their money, time, energy, talents, etc, for the sins of the oppressed and marginalised, especially with the present Anglophone crisis. The sins of this nation are many: institutionalised bribery and corruption, marginalisation of the anglophones, lies, occultism, waste of resources, unaccountability, distortion of law to suit individuals, disproportionate use of force, stealing, etc. Who is the Lamb or servant who would free us from this mess? Can these sins be atoned for by taking money from the government, as governors, SDOs, DOs, parliamentarians, some chiefs, and elites have done, without doing what they were supposed to do? What a shame! Is it not a continuation of the whole system of divide and rule? Why does our government hate meaningful, open and frank dialogue? Must they be pushed to the wall before things can happen?

Dear friends in Christ, we need honest men and women, new lambs and servants who can rise to take away the sins/shame of our people, of the polluted western culture and practices that don't befit us as children of God. Not by bloodshed but by their outright condemnation of the ills and wrongs that go contrary to natural order and the commandments of God.

May we have another Amos-like figure to help stand and defend the rights of the poor, oppressed and marginalised, so that the sins of nations in disarray and disharmony may be led back to God by true lambs.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS AT ST. JOSEPH'S:

Thanks to those who helped take down the decorations last Saturday. You may be wondering why the crib is still in place. It is a Franciscan tradition to not take the crib down until 2 February (Feast of Candlemas). So we were delighted to agree to leave the crib in situ until then. You will notice that the Kings have now visited it!!
