Sunday 11 January 2026 : The Baptism of Our Lord Jesus Christ

This Sunday's celebration of the Baptism of Our Lord Jesus Christ closes the season of Christmas and the mystery of the Epiphany with the self-revelation of the Holy Trinity at the river Jordan at the start of Jesus' public ministry. In the Gospel we read that as God the Son emerged from the waters, the Holy Spirit descended upon him and the voice of God the Father was heard. By undergoing Baptism, Jesus sanctified the sign of water for us and showed us the way to salvation. In every baptism, the Holy Trinity is manifested and comes to dwell in the heart of the person who is baptised. Baptism confers sanctifying grace and marks the beginning of our life in Christ. Parents: seek out this great sacrament of sanctifying grace for your children as soon as you may! Do not delay the baptism of your children on any pretext whatsoever! Every day without baptism is a day without sanctifying grace and without the Holy Trinity indwelling within your child. If our faith has any meaning at all, then your children need baptism as much as they need food or air. Grandparents and relatives: please use your good offices to get new parents to approach the font!

Welcome to Father James

This weekend we welcome Father James Lewis as our presider at Sunday Mass. Father James is the Pastoral Area Co-ordinator for Jesus Prince of Peace, South East Hampshire. Together with Father Tom Hiney he shepherds our sister communities of Waterlooville, Horndean and Leigh Park.

Thank you to our music ministry team

Our music ministers at St Colman and St Paul deserve our thanks for their hard work and dedication, especially this Christmas season. Please help them to feel even more appreciated by joining in with the songs, which they lead as a service to us. To sing is to pray twice, and it will also help to make you feel better!

Peace Sunday

Next Sunday is Peace Sunday, the Patronal Feast of our Pastoral Area of Jesus Prince of Peace. We will pray for peace at Sunday Mass and take up a second collection for Pax. It is also the start of the Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity: on Sunday evening we will be hosting an ecumenical service of the Word at 5pm at St Colman's Church. Please come to welcome our Christian brothers and sisters.

From Father Andrew

Thank you kindly for your generosity in the Christmas Offering collection, for all your kind and thoughtful cards and gifts this Christmas season, and especially for your prayers and understanding at a busy time!

Second collections

Our Crib collection raised for the Friends of the Holy Land: Thank you! Next Sunday's Second Collection will be for Pax Christi, the international Catholic movement for peace.

The Sanctuary Lamp which burns constantly before the Tabernacle is dedicated this week to vocations. If you would like the lamp to burn for your intentions, please contact the parish office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation:

Saturday 5:30pm at St Colman's Church.

Of your charity, please pray:

- For friends and neighbours who are ill or housebound: Kana Blyth, Joe Charlton, Elizabeth Christian, Christine, Anne & Michael Colley, Tommy Cooper, John Cox, Pauline Crook, Jean Gartshore, Bob Guy, Janet, Dawn Marie, Sajimon Mathew, Paula Medd, Phoenix, Valerie O'Donnell, Maureen Smeeth, Beryl Walters, Verena.
- For patients in the Queen Alexandra Hospital and for residents in the care homes and nursing homes in our parish: Kinross, The Haven, Hamilton House, and East Cosham.
