Cycle of Prayer: Easter

New Members of the Church, Vocations, Human Work, The Right Use of the Media, The Church

This Sunday, the Church contemplates the central mystery of our faith: the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. While we often struggle to grasp the theological concept of three Persons in one God, this feast is less about solving a divine equation and more about entering a divine relationship. We celebrate a God who is not a solitary, distant ruler, but an eternal exchange of love between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Because we are created in the image of this Triune God, we are hardwired for connection. The Trinity reveals that the fundamental essence of the universe is not isolation, but communion. We truly find ourselves only when we give of ourselves in love to others. Living this mystery begins with the Sign of the Cross, a profound profession of faith that reminds us that the Triune God dwells within us from the moment of our Baptism. Our call is to mirror this divine unity by building communities of harmony and forgiveness. As we celebrate our feast today, let us rest in the beauty of a God who is both a family in himself and an endless gift to us.

First Communion

The First Communion mass will be on Saturday 6th June at 12.00. For more information contact Angie on fhcteam.olqp@gmail.com.

Prayer used by the Corrymeela Community in Northern Ireland

Show us, good Lord,
the peace we should seek,
the peace we must give,
the peace we can keep.
the peace we must forgo,
and the peace you have given in Jesus Christ our Lord.
