SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

16/17 MAY 2026

Fr James was sent these challenging and helpful words by a friend of his last week and has chosen to share them with you...

"I Don't Feel Anything at Mass. So Why Go?". This is another one people don't always say out loud, but they live it: "I go to Mass, but I don't feel anything." "It's boring." "It doesn't move me."

It sounds honest. But it hides a dangerous misunderstanding. Because Mass was never designed to entertain you. It was designed to save you.

Let me explain. We live in a world addicted to feelings. If it feels good, it's worth it. If it feels dry, we quit. But love doesn't work like that. And neither does God. There are days you feel nothing in prayer. There are days Mass feels long. There are days the homily doesn't touch you.

But here's the truth nobody tells you: The power of the Mass does not depend on your feelings. Christ is still present. The sacrifice is still real. Grace is still being poured out. Whether you feel it, or not.

Think about this: At Calvary, when Jesus was dying, there was no music, no lights, no "emotional atmosphere." Just blood. Silence. Pain. And yet, that was the greatest moment of salvation in history.

Mass is that same sacrifice, made present again. So, if you're chasing feelings, you'll miss it. But if you come with faith, you'll receive everything.

Let me be a bit direct: If you only show up when you "feel something," you're not worshiping God, you're worshiping your emotions. Faith is not built on goosebumps. It's built on truth.

And the truth is this: At every Mass, Heaven touches earth. At every Mass, Jesus offers Himself again for you. At every Mass, you stand at the foot of the Cross. Even if you feel nothing. Especially when you feel nothing. Because real love shows up, not just when it's exciting, but when it's hard.

You don't skip meals because you're "not in the mood to eat." You don't stop breathing because it feels ordinary. So why treat your soul that way? You say Mass is boring? Maybe. But salvation is not a performance. It's a sacrifice.

So come anyway. Kneel anyway. Receive anyway. Because one day you will realize: It was never about what you felt. It was about what God was doing. And He was doing everything.

Lines from the Nigerian Catholic writer Nwaukwa Chinedu Chisom

Important Newsletter Announcement

From next weekend (23/24), St Michael & All Angels will be included in our parish newsletter. As our three churches continue to work closely together under the guidance of Fr. James and Fr. Tom, it feels like the right time to bring everything into one shared newsletter. Having a single newsletter for all three churches will help us stay connected, keep everyone informed about services, events and parish life, and celebrate all that is happening across our wider church community. We hope this will strengthen the sense of fellowship between our congregations and make it easier for everyone to share in the life of the parish.

News from St. Peter's School

Executive Headteacher, Richard Cunningham writes...

Well done to the children of Year 5 at St Peter's who took part in Bikeability (the updated version of the Cycling Proficiency Test) this week. School is about so much more than just what goes on in the classroom, and Year 5 in the spring and summer terms are the proof of that. In 2026 each Year 5 class has taken part in swimming lessons as required by the National Curriculum, and also this week learnt the basics of bike maintenance as well as the skills needed to ride safely on the road.

Community Spirit in Action!

One of our regular parish centre users, Slimming World, had a tremendous response from their clients last Friday. Here, Lea explains the inspiration behind the initiative:

"So, our latest Clothes Throw... Slimming World is about much more than losing weight, we create communities and together achieve so much. Our Clothes Throw was developed from the idea of raising money from donating clothes we've slimmed out of – there's no better feeling than dropping a dress size or two and feeling confident of 'no return'! My members donated an incredible 985 bags last week which is worth an estimated £29,550 to Cancer Research UK (CRUK)! As a company, our members raised £2.5 million last year and since the introduction, Clothes Throw has seen members raise over £11 million for CRUK!

Admittance to Hospital?

When a Catholic is admitted to hospital, the family should ensure that the Catholic Chaplaincy is contacted so that appropriate support can be given. It is suggested that the patient have a note to give to hospital staff on admission, notifying staff that they are Catholic and would appreciate the Catholic Chaplaincy service. This could be followed up by a telephone call from the family to the ward to ensure the request is actioned. When a person is due to go into hospital, please also let your parish priest know so that he can administer the Sacrament of the Sick where appropriate.
