ELEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

SUNDAY 14 JUNE 2026

Ellen McCarthy, Parish Secretary at St. Michael, writes...

First Holy Communion Celebration

Last Sunday, St Michael and All Angels was delighted to celebrate the First Holy Communion of 13 children. Surrounded by their families, friends, and fellow parishioners, the children received Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament for the first time, marking an important milestone in their faith journey.

The Mass was a joyful and prayerful occasion, reflecting the children's preparation and commitment over the past months. We are grateful to the catechists, parents, and all who supported them in preparing for this special day.

Please continue to keep these young people and their families in your prayers as they grow in faith and deepen their relationship with Christ through regular participation in the Eucharist.

Congratulations to all 13 children on their First Holy Communion. May God bless them abundantly as they continue their journey of faith.

We also look forward to welcoming a further five children who will make their First Holy Communion this coming weekend. Please keep them in your prayers as they prepare for this special occasion.

Saturday 20 June	Jesus Prince of Peace Safeguarding Training Michael White, Safeguarding Rep for St. Edmund’s writes... The Diocesan Safeguarding Office has pleasure in inviting you to the safeguarding training morning led by Julie Minal. This meeting is open to everyone , not just those involved in ministries requiring Enhanced DBS Disclosures. Many of you are involved in parish ministries that would benefit from safeguarding insights, even if your ministry does not require an Enhanced DBS Disclosure. It is a great opportunity to meet other like-minded individuals and share ideas. We all have safeguarding responsibilities towards our fellow citizens. These sessions enhance our insights and increase our understanding about those children and adults who are considered vulnerable. The aim of this session includes identification of the nature of abuse, its signs and symptoms, and the way in which safe strategies can be put into place in our church. Please book directly with the Diocesan Safeguarding Office safeguarding@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk	10.30am-1.30pm	St Michael, Leigh Park

First Holy Communion at Sacred Heart

This weekend, a number of our children will receive the Sacrament of First Holy Communion for the first time at Sacred Heart.

As they prepare for this very special occasion, we ask you to keep them and their families in your prayers. May their hearts be filled with a deep love for Jesus in the Eucharist, and may this important step in their faith journey bring them many blessings.

We would also like to express our sincere thanks to the fabulous catechists who have generously given their time, guidance and support through the programme. Their dedication has helped nurture and prepare the children for this important milestone in their faith journey.

Livestreaming at Sacred Heart

We apologise that there will be no livestream of Mass this Sunday due to unforeseen circumstances. Thank you for your understanding, and we look forward to resuming the livestream as soon as possible.

News from our schools’

- Amy Bonnington, Oaklands Head of School writes...
We are delighted to share the wonderful news that Oaklands has received a successful OFSTED inspection, with the school being graded ‘Strong’ in Inclusion, Personal Development and Wellbeing, and Attendance and Behaviour. The report recognised the caring and faith-filled community at the heart of the school, stating: “The school’s ethos builds a strong sense of community. Pupils feel that they belong and are respected. They develop positive character traits based on the school values of community, unity and opportunity.”

Inspectors also praised the wide range of opportunities available to pupils, including performances, sport and Culture Week, which celebrate the diversity and gifts of all within the school community. We thank our staff, students, families, governors and parish community for their continued support and prayers. You can read the full report on our website following this link www.oaklandscatholicsschool.org/about-us/ofsted/

- A vacancy has arisen for a Foundation governor at St. Thomas More's Catholic Primary School providing the opportunity for anyone interested in primary school children's education to join the Governing Body of one of our local Parish Catholic Primary Schools. Further information and an application form can be viewed on the website of the Catholic Diocese of Portsmouth, www.casop Portsmouth.org.uk/governors or if you prefer to have a conversation to discuss your potential interest please contact the Headteacher, Mr. J. Sendall or Chair of Governors, Paul Baker on 023 9247 5909. Fr. James would also be happy to discuss this opportunity.

Teach Me To Pray

This week our group continued with the luminous mysteries. These are the mysteries of light and the second decade we focused on the Wedding Feast at Cana. We were happy to welcome a new Grandparent Volunteer, who kindly gave a little gift to the group- a small Jesus figure with a cross key chain and prayer card. Thank you Carol!

Teach me to Pray is a beautiful opportunity to bridge our older and younger children to grow spiritually, share wisdom and pray together as one community. Through the Rosary, Scripture reflection and shared intentions, we hope to nurture our faith and pass on the rich traditions of our Catholic faith to the next generation.

Prayer intentions this week: Teachers, Mother Mary, family here and in Nigeria, the elderly and those who have passed away, those in war and for God's creation, my new baby sister, suffering animals including those who are endangered, First Holy Communion candidates, all hospital patients and world leaders

STMS thanks you for your generosity of time and prayer with the children. It is beautiful to see how the group has been growing in number and in faith.

Canon Gerard Flynn, RIP

We lovingly remember Canon Gerard whose anniversary occurs during the month of June. Tea and cake will be shared after the 9.30am Mass on Sunday 21 June at St. Michael and All Angels, Leigh Park, as we come together in prayer and remembrance. Hope you can all join us.

Admittance to Hospital?

When a Catholic is admitted to hospital, the family should ensure that the Catholic Chaplaincy is contacted so that appropriate support can be given. It is suggested that the patient have a note to give to hospital staff on admission, notifying staff that they are Catholic and would appreciate the Catholic Chaplaincy service. This could be followed up by a telephone call from the family to the ward to ensure the request is actioned. When a person is due to go into hospital, please also let your parish priest know so that he can administer the Sacrament of the Sick where appropriate.
