REFRESHMENTS AFTER SUNDAY MASS - All welcome.

CONGRATULATIONS to all our CWL members as they celebrated the 60th anniversary of the CWL in our parish last Sunday.

Over the years, so many of our parishioners have been members of the CWL, and many continue to serve the group today. We are truly grateful for their dedication, friendship and the many ways in which they have served our parish community. We greatly appreciate all the good work they continue to do.

A special thank you to everyone who helped organise the gathering after the 11.00am Mass. It was wonderful to see so many parishioners coming together and enjoying one another's company. This is a beautiful expression of the family spirit within our parish.

We are also very grateful to Siobhan Garibaldi, the National President of the CWL, who travelled from London to join us and celebrate this special occasion with our parish community.

May God bless all our CWL members, past and present, and may the CWL continue to flourish and bring friendship, faith and service to our parish for many years to come.

With grateful thanks,
Fr. Inna
