ALL SAINTS

WELCOME to Fr John Adikwu CM who will be celebrating our Sunday Mass this week. Fr John is a Chaplain at QA Hospital.

TODAY'S GOSPEL As I write, America continues to bomb Iran and Iran continues to bomb American assets and allies; Israelis and Palestinians continue as bitter enemies bent on destroying each other and I reflect, ruefully, that there is a tragic irony here: the protagonists in these conflicts subscribe to the three Abrahamic faiths all of whose sacred writings teach, express and urge a fundamental respect for all human life, even the enemy's. Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly. To the man who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek too; to the man who takes your cloak from you, do not refuse your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your property back from the man who robs you. Treat others as you would like them to treat you. In the Gospel today, Jesus, for the first time, some scholars believe, links love of God and love of neighbour as two sides of the same coin such that love of God cannot be claimed where love of neighbour is ignored. When asked, who is my neighbour, Jesus clearly identifies the enemy, the hated Samaritan, as one who is as entitled to our love and care as anyone, even our own family members. Whether the 'Samaritan' in these present conflicts is the Palestinian or the Israeli, the American or the Iranian, he is worthy of and entitled to the same love and respect, the same right to live in peace with his neighbours, the same right to cultivate his own crops, work for his living and support his family, provide food, clothing and shelter for their basic needs, educate his children and look to the state for support in his sickness and old age. Until these principles are fully recognised, honoured and lived out by all who claim a faith in the one true God, his kingdom will never come, and his will never be done on earth as it is in heaven. (Mgr Canon Jeremy Garratt)

First Reading: Exodus 22:21-27 'If you mistreat any widow or fatherless child, my wrath will burn against you.'

Responsorial Psalm: 18 (17) R/. I love you, LORD, my strength.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10 'You turned away from idols to serve God and to wait for his Son.'

Gospel Acclamation (sung): Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40 'You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.'

Communion Antiphon: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

NEWSLETTER ITEMS: Please send contributions by Wednesday 9am to: newsletter@stpatrickshaylingisland.org.uk.
You can also use this address to sign up to receive this newsletter by email each week.

WELCOME TO ST PATRICK'S! A warm welcome to all those visiting the island and joining us for Holy Mass today. If you are a visitor or new to the community, please introduce yourself to the clergy after Mass. Please join us in the hall after Mass for tea, coffee and social time.

HAYLING HOLIDAY LUNCHES Next collection on Sunday 8th November (and every second Sunday of the month). Some of the items particularly required are tins of beans, spaghetti, spaghetti hoops; tomato, chicken or vegetable soup; tins of spaghetti bolognese, macaroni cheese, meat balls, fruit salad, pears or peaches, and rice pudding. Packets of Angel Delight or equivalent; custard powder; pasta or spaghetti. Pasta sauces; porridge (preferably not in boxes); bottles of orange or blackcurrant squash. For Christmas we will be collecting boxes/tubs of Celebrations and Heroes. A gentle reminder that this is a collection for children's lunches as we had a bottle of prosecco and a box of cat biscuits given in the Harvest collection, so the items above are ideal, but please make sure tins have long dates on them due to the nature of collection and distribution timeframes. Thank you.

MISSIO RED BOXES: Could those who would like their red Missio Boxes emptied in time for this year's payment to Missio HQ, bring them to Angi Howell in the Hall after Mass on Sunday 25 October, or 1 November. Alternatively, this year it is possible to collect a Missio envelope from Angi, count and enclose the contents of your own box and hand the envelope back to Angi to save having to hand in and collect the actual red box. Thank you for your support.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF OUR CHURCH COMMUNITY: Regular giving to St Patrick's really help us budget for ever-increasing expenditure. Please give what you can but give regularly by direct debit if you can as it guarantees us a regular income. This is the best way to financially support our church Community. See the page on the new website for bank details and direct debit / Gift Aid forms: https://www.sphi.uk/donate. If you are a taxpayer, please remember to sign a Gift Aid Declaration – one signature adds 25% to the value of every donation.

CWL APPEAL FOR THE LOCAL WOMEN'S REFUGE (Stop Domestic Abuse) Items needed: single bedding, gift sets, shampoo, conditioner, tampons, nappies, children's night lights, towels, slippers, pyjamas, deodorant, women's socks and underwear, cutlery, vouchers, plastic plates/cups for children.

THE QUARTERLY: Deadline for the next issue is Sunday 22 November. See the poster for more information.

BLESSING OF GRAVES: Tuesday 3 November after Mass.

MASS INTENTIONS If you would like a Mass offered for a particular intention, please complete the details on a Mass envelope (available at the back of church) including your offering (£10 is suggested) and give it to Clare Hill, Deacon Craig or drop it through the Presbytery letterbox.

HOLY HOUR FOR VOCATIONS: Please join us on Sunday 25 October and Sunday 22 November at 4pm *(NB: earlier time during the darker evenings) to pray for our priests and seminarians and for more vocations for our diocese, especially for the Lord to send us more priests.

CARE IN THE COMMUNITY AT CHRISTMAS: Across Jesus Prince of Peace parish, we are asking for help in providing toys for children (0–16 years) this Christmas for families who are struggling to afford gifts for their children. Could you offer a new toy to the appeal? Please bring your donations (don't wrap them) to church over the next couple of weeks so we can help those less fortunate this Christmas. And if you are a parent in need yourself, please speak to Fr Tom or Deacon Craig who will try and help find something suitable for you from the gifts collected.

PARISH EVANGELISATION FORMATION DAY: Saturday 31 October , 10am – 1:30pm, Christ the King, Reading, RG2 8NR Last chance to sign up! Please register by Tuesday 27 October as this helps us with ensuring we have enough food and have catered for people's needs. More details in Diocesan e-News (events): https://forms.office.com/e/JGgE7zeuun

THE REPOSITORY is organised and managed by our CWL with proceeds going to CWL charities and local charities. Don't forget to consider the repository for Christmas stocking fillers!
