WELCOME TO ST PATRICK'S! A warm welcome to all those visiting the island or new to the community and joining us for Mass today, please introduce yourself to the clergy and join us in the hall after Mass for tea, coffee and social time.

THIS SUNDAY, 8th November is Remembrance Sunday when we commemorate the contribution of British and Commonwealth military and civilian servicemen and women in the two World Wars and since. The Day is kept on the second Sunday in November, the Sunday nearest to 11th November, Armistice Day, which marks the end of hostilities in the First World War in 1918. It is usually kept by two minutes' silence at 11am. Across the land, there will be numerous ceremonies at local war memorials in most cities, towns and villages, attended by civic dignitaries, ex-servicemen and -women, members of the Royal British Legion and other veterans' organisations, members of local armed forces regular and reserve units, military cadet forces and youth organisations such as the Boys and Girls Brigades, Scouts and Guides. Representatives of the Judiciary also lay wreaths at local War Memorials throughout the country. Wreaths of remembrance made of poppies are laid on the memorials. The reason poppies are used to remember those who have given their lives in battle is because in the midst of the filth and mud in the fields of Flanders, they were the flowers which grew on the battlefields despite it all.

Mass this Remembrance Sunday will be a Mass for the Dead, beginning with an Act of Remembrance. The Gloria is omitted, but we still say the Creed as it is Sunday. The readings are those of the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

First Reading: Wisdom 6:12-16 'Wisdom is found by those who seek her.'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 63 (62) R/. For you my soul is thirsting, O Lord, my God.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 'Through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.'

Gospel Acclamation (sung): Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Stay awake and be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13 'Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.'

Communion Antiphon: God sent his only begotten Son into the world, so that we might have life through Him.

NEWSLETTER ITEMS: Please send contributions by Wednesday 9am to: newsletter@stpatrickshaylingisland.org.uk.
You can also use this address to sign up to receive this newsletter by email each week.

MISSIO RED BOXES: This Sunday will be the last opportunity to hand in Red Boxes and "count-your-own" envelopes for this year's donations for Missio. Angi will be available after Sunday Mass to receive any boxes or envelopes. Thank you for your generosity.

PRIESTS' RETIREMENT FUND: On the weekend of 14/15 November, we will hold our first Second Collection for the Priests' Retirement Fund. This is an opportunity to support the priests who have faithfully served our parishes and communities throughout their lives. After decades of ministry, our retired priests deserve the security of knowing that the care and support they may need in later life will always be available. Your donation will help ensure that they can live with dignity and peace of mind in retirement. Donation envelopes will be available with printed newsletters and at all Masses that weekend. Please support this appeal as generously as you can.

KEVIN CONROY, R.I.P. Kevin's funeral will be on Thursday 12th November at 1.00pm at The Oaks Crematorium, Havant, followed by a wake at the Newtown House Hotel, Hayling Island. All who knew him are welcome to both.

FROM OUR MUSIC TEAM: This Advent, our music will reflect the season's longing and anticipation as we rediscover the beauty of the Gregorian Mass setting. Everyone is warmly encouraged to join in, with those familiar with the chants helping others find their voice. Until Christmas, parts of the Mass will be in Latin, except at the Family Mass on the third Sunday of the month. The Our Father will remain spoken in English so that visitors and Christians of all denominations can participate. Latin Mass cards with musical notation will be available to help everyone take part. More next week!
