RETIRING COLLECTION ON SUNDAY 15TH NOVEMBER FOR THE PRIESTS' RETIREMENT FUND.

Please support the priests who have faithfully served our parishes and communities throughout their lives, so that our retired priests have the security of knowing that the care and support they may need in later life will always be available. Your donation will help ensure that they can live with dignity and peace of mind in retirement.

Please support this appeal as generously as you can.

WELCOME TO ST PATRICK'S! A warm welcome to all those visiting the island or new to the community and joining us for Mass today, please introduce yourself to the clergy and join us in the Hall after Mass for the CWL PRE-ADVENT FAYRE where you can have a bowl of soup and piece of bread at a very reasonable cost and tea/coffee and cake will be available for £1.50 available as usual. Large and small cakes on offer to buy and take home. Beautiful crafts for sale at another table and the Repository will move into the Hall, plenty of room to browse and (hopefully) buy your Christmas items - get started early. You can choose your number from the raffle board, £1 a square, for the usual festive prizes, draw will take place on 20th December. Proceeds to CWL charities. Please remember to bring cash, the CWL does not have a card machine. We look forward to seeing you and thank you in advance for your on-going support.

THIS SUNDAY, we hear in the Gospel the Parable of the Talents. God has called us to be trusted servants, fellow workers, using our talents to serve one another and His kingdom as good stewards of His grace. In this, we each have a different part to play. Though the good servants in today's parable were given different numbers of talents, each "doubled" what he was given. And each earned the same reward for his faithfulness—greater responsibilities and a share of the Master's joy. So let us resolve again in Sunday's Eucharist to make much of what we've been given, to do all for the glory of God. That we, too, may approach our Master with confidence and love when He comes to settle accounts.

First Reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

MARIJKE'S MUSICAL NOTES: This Advent, our music will reflect the season's longing and anticipation as we rediscover the beauty of the Gregorian Mass setting. Everyone is warmly encouraged to join in, with those familiar with the chants helping others find their voice. Until Christmas, parts of the Mass will be in Latin, except at the Family Mass on the third Sunday of the month. The Our Father will remain spoken in English so that visitors and Christians of all denominations can participate. Latin Mass cards with musical notation will be available to help everyone take part. Here are some resources which may either help you to dust off your existing knowledge, or equally to introduce you to a new and wonderfully beautiful world. It's amazing what you can absorb by osmosis, and I highly recommend just letting a YouTube recording play in the background of whatever you might be getting on with; driving, washing up, gardening, for example. Or you can study more specifically. Two sources are most recommended. The first is the Let's Sing with the Pope series, which is available on YouTube and has a very light and encouraging bitesize tutorial for every sung or intoned aspect of the Mass, featuring the endlessly smiley and encouraging Fr Robert Mehlhart of the Pontifical Institute of Sacred Music. Alternatively, there is a group called Floriani whose purpose is evangelising via the beauty of sacred music. On their website you will find just about every chant in a separate recording, and accompanying sheet music. They have an excellent YouTube channel with hours of recordings of all the major chants and melodies we should know as Catholics.

STELLA MARIS CHRISTMAS APPEAL: Can you help us give Christmas chocolates to Seafarers in Southampton this December? Stella Maris want to show Seafarers that they are not forgotten this Christmas. Please see the poster for suggestions and bring your donations next Sunday.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY will be available on Sunday 15th, but not on 22nd November which will be a Family Mass.
