FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

WELCOME TO ST PATRICK'S! A warm welcome to all those visiting the island or new to the community and joining us for Mass today, please introduce yourself to the clergy and join us in the Hall after Mass for tea or coffee.

THIS SUNDAY, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, the sixteenth centenary of the Council of Nicaea at which the doctrine of the consubstantiality of Christ with the Father was defined. Its eschatological character was confirmed by its move, in the calendar reforms of the Second Vatican Council, to the final Sunday of the liturgical year. The Pope asserted that the most effective defence against the destructive forces of the age is the recognition of the kingship of Christ; and, furthermore, a feast which is celebrated every year by everyone is a far better way of deploying that defence than any number of books written by learned people. First, we do; then we come to understand what it is that we are doing. Each of us has been anointed with holy oil at baptism, as priest, prophet and king. The feast of Christ the King is thus a good moment to reflect on our kingship and on what "king" means and how to be one. Understanding the feast makes us understand our own call better. How far that responsibility takes one can then be seen in the King of the Universe, who is simultaneously the ruler of all and the servant of all. He rules in triumph; and he rules from the Cross. Perhaps a way into a meditation on all this would be to ask, "Over whom am I, personally, king?" and hence "Whom am I called to serve?"

The Gospel this Sunday brings the Church's year to a grand climax with one of the finest scenes in the Gospels. We hear how the Son of Man comes in all his glory to sit on his throne and then those who are righteous will follow him into eternal life. Yet as is strongly emphasised in the Bible, the king must be first of all a shepherd, as we hear in the short reading this Sunday from the prophet Ezekiel.

First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17 'As for you, my flock, I judge between sheep and sheep.'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 23(22) R/. The LORD is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28 'Christ delivers the kingdom to God the Father, that God may be all in all.'

Gospel Acclamation (sung): Alleluia. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 25:31-46 'He will sit on his glorious throne, and he will separate people one from another.'

NEWSLETTER ITEMS: Please send contributions by Wednesday 9am to: newsletter@stpatrickshaylingisland.org.uk.
You can also use this address to sign up to receive this newsletter by email each week.

NO CHILDREN'S LITURGY on Sunday 22nd November as this will be our monthly Family Mass.

THE QUARTERLY: Last call for contributions. Deadline for the next issue is this Sunday, 22nd November at 4pm.

HOLY HOUR FOR VOCATIONS & OUR PRIESTS this Sunday, 22nd November and on the 2ND, 3RD & 4TH SUNDAYS OF ADVENT (6th, 13th & 20th December) at 4pm.

SIMPLY SCRUMPTIOUS & PROMISE AUCTION: NEXT SUNDAY 29th November in the hall after Mass. No need to worry about Sunday lunch - Geoff's delicious bacon butties and a veggie option, coffee and tea will be available to purchase. Yet again we are appealing to your generosity - please consider what you would be able to offer for us to sell or auction. We would welcome anything edible or drinkable, cakes, savouries, jam, pickles, chutneys, homegrown fruit and veg, baskets of goodies, or any articles of interest which could be purchased for Christmas presents (smellies, new books, etc). Our last Auction raised over £1000 Forms to complete for the Promises will be available after Mass. Once completed, please place them in the box marked Promise Auction Promises which you will find opposite the CWL Repository, with a box for your bottle stall contributions. Closing date for Promises: Wednesday 25th November. CASH ONLY ON THE DAY PLEASE.

MARIJKE'S MUSICAL NOTES: This Advent, our music will reflect the season's longing and anticipation as we rediscover the beauty of the Gregorian Mass setting. Everyone is warmly encouraged to join in, with those familiar with the chants helping others find their voice. Until Christmas, parts of the Mass will be in Latin, except at the Family Mass on the third Sunday of the month. The Our Father will remain spoken in English so that visitors and Christians of all denominations can participate. Latin Mass cards with musical notation will be available to help everyone take part.

HELP NEEDED on Tuesday 24th November at 10:30am to clean out the cupboard in the Church Hall. Michelle needs somebody tall and strong to reach up high! Please speak to her if you can help.

STELLA MARIS CHRISTMAS CHOCOLATE APPEAL: Can you help us give Christmas chocolates to Seafarers in Southampton this December? Stella Maris want to show Seafarers that they are not forgotten this Christmas. Please see the poster for suggestions and bring your donations by Sunday, 29th November. Nicki and Victoria will be pleased to receive your donations.

The CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE thank all who helped in any way at its pre-Advent Fair last Sunday after Mass. Soup and cake makers, all who 'manned' the stalls and the waitresses. A special 'thank you' to non-CWL members who stepped in to help, we would never have managed without you. Total proceeds will be given next week; it will all contribute to the donations we give out for Christmas. You have all been very generous in all you have given for the Women's Refuge; this is on-going but this time of the year we will give them ladies toiletries and the like as now we have to ask for your generosity again for the CWL ANNUAL APPEAL FOR STELLA MARIS: Woolly hats please for the seafarers, if there are any 'new' knitters in the community, there is a pattern available at the back of the church, please ask, or it can be seen on the Stella Maris website (stellamaris.org.uk/knitting). Thanks to all our regular knitters. Also, thick socks and gloves, fingerless if possible, men's toiletries, razors, mini torches, biscuits and sweets, especially Toblerone are always appreciated. Thank you for your generosity. Please bring your donations by Sunday 13th December Many thanks in advance for your generosity.
